The Volleyball team was declared by the Patriot Ledger, "the best kept secret of Division 3 South all season". The South Sectional Champions thrived with a 12-7 record. Freshman phenom, Katryna Veasey, exploded onto the volleyball scene as a middle hitter and a staple of the Bishop's winning season under the wings of veteran teammates and senior co-captains Christine Chase and Monika Nowak. Veasey said to the Patriot Ledger, "They teach me a lot, the leaders of our team, we all work as a team. That's our strongest part." Head Coach Patricia Lewis put an emphasis on practicing defense and received praise about it from opposing coaches. A tough loss to Frontier Regional High School ended the season but Lewis is confident in her young team's future saying to the Patriot Ledger, "I think (the experience of playing in the state tournament) is really important because next year they'll have something to look forward to and know what to work on, I think next year we'll come back strong. They want it. It was a tough loss."

A win over Lee High School in the MIAA State Championship at the DCU center in Worcester was the grand finale to a stellar season with successes on the individual and team level. Some of these highlights included Junior Captain Sara Ryan hitting her 1,000 point and a South Sectional win on the TD Garden's parquet floor surrounded by a rowdy fan section, and a Catholic Central League Championship. The Boys Basketball team worked hard all season, and didn't take for granted how fortunate they were to be the last team that Ged Phelan coached before retiring. In his 30 plus years, Curry College, North Quincy High School, Hingham High School, and Archbishop Williams were privileged with his knowledge of the game and coaching skills. "I love competition. I love the game, but over the years, when you're invited to kids' weddings and you see them have their own kids and they come back to games - I have a couple guys I coached at North Quincy in 1985 that I still play golf with. They come to my games every once in a while. It's great to see these guys grow up and become solid citizens. That's what it's all about." (Boston.com December 2010) The 3-15 Bishop's were led this year by the captainship of seniors Jason Pekkinen, Carlos Amado, Ryan Brown, and Pat McAleney.

The Boys Hockey team was almost unrecognizable from the team last year who missed the playoffs by a single point. Unanimous hard work in the offseason by every member of the team produced a team that took the Catholic Central League Championship. The Marshfields were privileged to be considered among the elite of Massachusetts high school hockey earning a coveted play in the game in the Super 8 tournament. They were led by the captainship of Seniors Jake Reardon, Jake Romano, and Junior Mike Sorenti. Senior goalie Joe Vinay had a standout season saving 120 shots and allowing only 29 goals the entire regular season. Senior Captains Jake Reardon and Jake Romano played physical all season with 81 and 56 checks respectively. The offensive powerhouse was led by the scoring of Juniors Mike Sorenti, Mike Jessman, Senior Jake Reardon, and Juniors Nick Menzel and Ryan Dunn. With a 12-4-4 record the Catholic Central League champions season was ended at the hands of Marshfield in the second round of the Division 1A tournament.

In Memory of Mr. Joseph Ondus

The Archbishop Williams Community suffered a great loss earlier this year with the passing of our faculty member, minister, colleague and friend Joe Ondus.

Mr. Ondus arrived at AWHs in 1993 when he became a full time faculty member of the Theology Department. In the years to follow, he taught Theology, Latin, Public Speaking, and served on many committees within the Archbishop Williams community. In 2006, Mr. Ondus became Director of Campus Ministry, responsible for coordinating School Liturgies, Retreats and Community Service. This position included teaching a senior Peer Ministry class which he described as helping students to experience the importance of Christ-like leadership in the world today.

Every day Mr. Ondus taught, supported and ministered to the needs of our students. We mourn the loss in our community, celebrate his life, and give thanks for the time we had with him.

Colophon

The 2013 edition of the Archbishop Williams High School Yearbook, the Crosier, was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing at their Clarksville, TN, printing facility. Tara Anderson served as the local publishing representative and Christina Hodges served as the in-plant consultant. The yearbook contains 136 pages and had a one-time press run of 210 copies. It has a trim size of 8.5 x 11 inches. The cover is a custom embossed litho, with Indigo blue ink and Rich Gold ink to the cover and the spine. It also features an application of super matte lamination, with spot UV gloss. The cover was designed by Jostens Creative Design Manager Rick Brooks. The end sheets are a custom Name-Date design comprised of the names of the Class of 2013 printed in black ink on Gold Dust stock. The book binding is Smyth-Sewn.

All pages within the book were created using Jostens Yearbook Avenue website, YearTech online page creation tools and Adobe Photoshop. One-hundred pound (100#) gloss paper stock was used throughout the book, except for the endsheets, as well as in the Spring Supplement.

Photos were taken by Lifetouch: Prestige Portraits (senior and faculty portraits, candid and sports), O'Connor Studios (underclassmen portraits), Mr. Jim Coughlin and the Photography and Media class, and AWHHS students and parents. Fonts used include Antique Olive Black (headline), Helvetica (body copy and captions), AYT Opus (senior names), AYT Franklin Gothic (senior bios), and Daisy, Jasper & Gary for other decorative aspects.

The 2013 Crosier, which was delivered to the school in Spring 2013, includes events from August 2012 through March 2013, and covers freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, faculty and staff. A Spring Supplement was produced to cover events between March and June 2013. The 2013 Crosier was a one-time print, limited edition.

Victoria McIntyre, Lauren Carter, and Cameryn Bergman make up some of the "evil" characters.

Winnie the Pooh celebrates good times in the forest.

"This Is The Story"

Thursday April 4th -
Saturday April 6th

Written by
Ms. Susan Picillo

"This is the story" is an original take on classic fairytales. A message of hope and togetherness is told in a new light. Cinderella, Winnie the Pooh, Captain Hook, and the Big Bad Wolf come together to save the forest.

The cast looks on as Liv Osgood, Cinderella, asserts her authority.

"Bravo! Bravo!"

Emma McDonnell, Cruella, argues with Hook, Periklis Sarakiniotis, as the rest of the evil characters observe.

Echo Yang and Nick Neville, the Prince, share a special moment in the Enchanted forest.

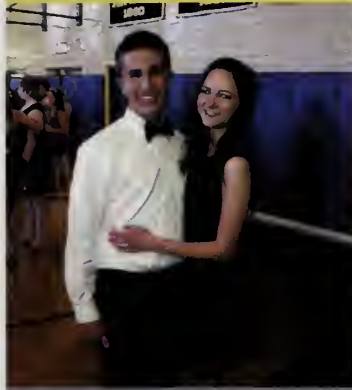

Emily Tully sings her heart out as Little Red Riding Hood.
